

Coffee Morning Volunteer Advert

Jessica Morris  Preferred hours per veek/time commitment  About the service  We have three extra care supported living services for older people with additional needs in the Bromley borough.  Purpose of the role  We are looking for befriender volunteers who would like to spend time with our residents on a weekly basis.  Initially the befriender role will involve bringing together residents to the communal area and running a coffee morning. Here you will help to set up for the coffee morning, prepare refreshments and provide companionship to the people attending, whilst understanding and respecting boundaries. Once you have built a connection there will be an opportunity to develop the role and spend time in the local community. This could include going for a walk, a trip to a local café, or accessing the local library.  As a volunteer with Creative Support we offer training for your role, access to a volunteer's peer support group.	Name of the service	Apsley Court
