JOB DESCRIPTION – SUPPORT WORKER
Woodside Close, Jarrow, South Tyneside

Hours: Full time and part time hours, to be worked flexibly according to the needs of the service.

The Role:

To provide individualised person centred support to people with learning disabilities living in their own homes or in supported housing; to enable them to enjoy a fulfilling and valued life, to participate in the community and to develop their abilities as fully as possible. To contribute to a consistent team approach.

As Support Worker, you will need to be enthusiastic about communicating with and supporting people in a person centred manner. Working alongside our dedicated team you will provide personal, practical, emotional and social support to individuals with learning disabilities who have limited communication, enabling them to have a great quality of life as important and valued members of the local Quorn community.

Main Responsibilities/Duties:

1. To develop and sustain warm and trusting relationships with service users.
2. To promote the self-esteem, happiness and emotional health of service users.
3. To respect the service user's right to privacy and to ensure that their dignity is maintained at all times.
4. To encourage and support service users in expressing their needs, views and concerns. To enable service users make choices and decisions and to participate as fully as possible in planning and decision-making processes.
5. To respect and promote the rights and entitlements of people with learning disabilities, complex needs and autistic spectrum disorders and to enable them to participate as fully as possible in their communities.
6. To support service users in maintaining the safety, security and comfort of their homes.
7. To support service users in understanding and adhering to the terms and conditions of their tenancy agreement and in enjoying the rights and responsibilities of being a tenant.
8. To be responsive to the individual needs of service users within the framework of their Person Centred Plans and to respond flexibly to changing needs.
9. To enable service users to become as independent as possible and to grow in confidence, competence and personal effectiveness in the following areas: Social skills/relationships, personal care & hygiene, daily living skills, using community resources and facilities, social, leisure and work activities, self-organisation and coping abilities and also personal safety.

10. To support people who express their frustrations and needs through challenging behaviour by using appropriate strategies, management guidelines and intervention frameworks as specified by the Person Centred Plan.
11. To work within agreed management protocols and guidelines for individuals with complex needs with a willingness to provide personal care support to both male and female service users.
12. To ensure that service users receive all necessary advice, care and regular health checks to ensure their physical health and well-being. To promote nutrition, relaxation, exercise and a healthy lifestyle.
13. To support service users in claiming their full benefit entitlement, budgeting and managing their personal finances.
14. To achieve a range of appropriate communication techniques in accordance with the individual needs of the service user.
15. To support service users in developing a socially valued lifestyle which includes a varied range of culturally and age appropriate experiences, building on the strengths, interests and aspirations of the service user. To enable people to access social, leisure, work and educational opportunities.
16. To enable service users to access developmental opportunities, new experiences and challenges, whilst not being exposed to unacceptable risks.
17. To assist service users in the administration and monitoring of prescribed medication in accordance with the Scheme's Medication Policy.
18. To observe and monitor the service users' emotional and physical well being and to inform relevant staff and agencies of any concerns or significant changes in their needs, behaviour and circumstances.
19. To take appropriate action in the event of unforeseen emergencies, ensuring that the Service Manager and/or the on-call manager is informed promptly.
20. To follow Health and Safety guidelines carefully and to alert the Team Leader immediately of any concerns in relation to Health and Safety issues.
21. To contribute to project records and individual case files.
22. To carry out and record all financial transactions involving service users within agency guidelines.
23. To carry out general administrative duties, housing management tasks and services as required.
24. To contribute to service users' reviews, through the provision of verbal and written reports and by attending Support Planning meetings.
