JOB DESCRIPTION – SENIOR QUALITY PRACTITIONER- REGIONAL LEAD

Midlands Area

Hours: 37.5 hours a week or part time hours of no less than 25 hours

Responsible to: Head of Quality and Service Director with lead on Quality

Location:

Your primary work base will be agreed in one of our midlands based regional offices when the location of the post holder is known. Your work will involve being based with the National Quality Team in our head office in Stockport as a minimum once a fortnight and for training and key meetings. This role requires extensive travel throughout the Midlands region, with some flexibility for home working.

Scope of the role:

Creative Support has an established quality department, which undertakes aspects of quality assurance work, compliance and good practice work nationally across our service user groups. These include a regular audit programme, a proactive audit schedule which works ahead of external inspections from regulators, local authorities and the CQC. The quality department also oversees the Social care governance structure, analyses quality data to ensure prevention strategies are used, and trends and themes form part of good practice awareness campaigns. The department ensures policies, procedures, quality systems are in place. There is a key focus on promoting good interdepartmental working to ensure the highest standards of support is provided to the service users in our care. Furthermore, to ensure a coproduction and inclusive approach with people we support in their own medication choices, rights and preferences.

We have over 90 locations (350 sites) that fall under CQC registration and compliance with these national standards is very important, as is supporting our 70 registered managers with their responsibilities nationally.

There is a key focus on promoting good interdepartmental working to ensure the highest standards of support is provided to the service users in our care. Furthermore, to ensure a coproduction and inclusive approach with people we support in their own medication choices, rights and preferences.

Summary of the role:

The role of Senior Quality Practitioner –Regional Lead – Midlands area, is a newly developed role which will significantly contribute to quality assurance across the organisation. You will be part of an established Quality team and will contribute to our audit and social care governance processes.

The role will lead on quality improvement assignments and development of processes across our Midlands region, particularly those services who are registered with CQC. Creative Support currently has over 700 services, including Learning Disability, Mental Health, Care Homes, etc. The role will be well supported within the highly experienced and established quality team who have been together in its current work for over 10 years.

The role includes carrying out quality audits and inspections and contributing to quality improvement and turnaround programmes. The post holder will also be part of a team which responds to specific work requests which may include assisting services with quality improvement work.
