- 1.4 Encourage and support service users to express needs, views and concerns. Enable service users make choices and decisions and participate as fully as possible in planning and decision-making processes. Enable people to contribute actively to decisions regarding their own care, support and activities through verbal and non-verbal communication methods tailored to their needs.
- 1.5 Respect and promote the rights and entitlements of people with learning disabilities, and complex needs, and autism spectrum conditions and enable them to participate as fully as possible in communities.
- 1.6 Carry out the role of key worker and enable service users to achieve their goals and aspirations by working alongside them to develop and implement person centred plans. Be responsive to changing needs and preferences.
- 1.7 Support service users in maintaining the safety, security and comfort of their homes. Support service users in understanding and adhering to the terms and conditions of their tenancy agreement and in enjoying the rights and responsibilities of being a tenant.
- 1.8 Enable service users to gain independence, confidence and competence in following areas:
 - Social skills/relationships
 - Personal care & hygiene
 - Daily living skills
 - Managing money
 - Using community resources and facilities
 - Social, leisure and work activities
 - Self-organisation and coping abilities

- Personal safety

Achieve this through practical assistance, support, therapeutic recreation and education sessions, teaching, advice, role modelling, encouragement and positive feedback.

- 1.9 Support service users in claiming their full benefit entitlement, budgeting and managing their personal finances.
- 1.10 Provide respectful personal care following needs, wishes and preferences outlined in personal support plans
- 1.11 Support people to enjoy a wide range of activities within the home and community which meets their needs. Support service users in developing a socially valued lifestyle, including culturally and age appropriate experiences, building on strengths, interests and aspirations of service users. Enable people to access social, leisure, work and educational opportunities.
- 1.12 Ensure that service users receive advice, care and regular health checks to ensure their physical and mental wellbeing. Promote nutrition, relaxation, exercise and healthy lifestyles. Observe and monitor the service users' emotional and physical wellbeing and inform the Manager, families and involved professionals of concerns or significant changes in needs, behaviour and circumstances.
- 1.13 Offer positive behaviour support to individuals who express their frustrations and needs through behaviour that challenges by using appropriate strategies, management protocols and guidelines agreed with the multi-disciplinary team where appropriate
- 1.14 Collaborate with families of service users and involved professionals to provide consistent services to meet individual needs. Encourage and support connections with families and friends. Positively and respectfully communicate with families and involved professionals.
- 1.15 Follow the guidance and risk management strategies outlined in risk management plans. Work in a safe and responsible manner to safeguard vulnerable service users from harm whilst ensuring they are able to make choices, enjoy new experiences and live a full life.
