JOB DESCRIPTION – TEAM LEADER
HALL LANE- COOKRIDGE- LEEDS

Do you have the commitment, compassion and person-centred values to be able to make a real difference to the individuals who we support?

We have an exciting opportunity for a positive and professional individual, who enjoys supervising and coaching staff alongside providing great care and support in promoting independence.

We are seeking an experienced person for the role of Team Leader with a strong work ethic who can share our vision of providing a person-centred, strengths-based service which promotes health, wellbeing, independence and community connections.

You will lead the provision of care for a defined group of service users and staff working at our Hall Lane services. Hall Lane supports people with learning disabilities, Autism, complex health and mental health needs.

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, to be worked flexibly to include evenings and weekends, according to the needs of the service.

Responsible to: Registered Manager

About the service:

Hall Lane is based in a beautiful cul-de-sac setting in Cookridge. Hall Lane services comprise of 4 separate houses each with a large enclosed outdoor area. House 1 is where the office is located in addition to Service User's self-contained flats. House 3 and 5 are Bungalows where service users have private bedrooms and shared living areas and kitchens. House 7 is a 2 story property where service users have private bedrooms and shared living areas and kitchens.

The Role:

To undertake a Team Leader role we are looking for a highly motivated individual to oversee the services, managing a senior support worker in each house, as well as deputising for the Registered Manager. The role requires someone with experience of working within CQC regulated services and with experience of line management of a small team and experience in support for adults with a learning disability, complex health needs and mental health diagnosis. You will ensure that the care and support provided is truly personalised and delivered in accordance with agreed support plans and service user's preferences enabling the achievement of planned outcomes. You are expected to collaborate positively with the families of the people we support, colleagues, care managers, health professionals and other stakeholders. You will provide direct care and support and carry out support tasks within the person's home. This could involve the provision of personal care, health related tasks, support with daily living, administering medication, moving and handling, community participation and activities, household tasks and general emotional support. The role will require you to work both on and off rota, leading by example and leading support staff to deliver exceptional care.

In addition to this, you will be responsible for:

- Quality visits to service user homes to assess their satisfaction and the quality of service provision
- Medication compliance checks
- Audits of support plans and key support documents
- Direct observations of staff practice
- Staff supervision and appraisals
- Induction and coaching of staff
- Taking part in service user reviews
- Following up any concerns and reinforcing good practice
- Promoting excellent customer care to your service users, their families and other stakeholders
- Ensuring that we provide reliable, consistent, high quality care which meets internal, commissioner and CQC quality standards

Team Leader Duties:

1. To support the Registered Manager to provide a high quality personalised service which meets the expectations of the contract, the service specification and agreed quality standards with Creative Support, the local authority and CQC. You will ensure that the highest level of customer service and satisfaction is achieved.
2. To coordinate the delivery of care to a defined group of service users, ensuring that they receive a consistent and personalised service which meets their identified needs, respects their choices and preferences, builds on their strengths and assets, promotes their wellbeing and maximises their independence. To work with each person we support, their families and other agencies to achieve positive person-centred outcomes.
3. To ensure that we deliver a respectful and culturally sensitive service that promotes the privacy, dignity, and wellbeing of service users. To ensure that staff respect the human rights and choices of service users and demonstrate unconditional positive regard at all times.
4. To ensure that service users receive a consistent and personalised service by deploying staff to meet their needs and preferences in accordance with the agreed care and support plan. To ensure that commissioned care and support are provided reliably in accordance with the statutory care plan and that agreed outcomes are met.
5. To work efficiently in ensuring all clients receive their commissioned 1:1 support hours, along with the support hours commissioned to run the services. To plan and organise staff cover for absences and additional requirements as needed.
6. To ensure the safety and wellbeing of the people we support at all times, ensuring that policies and procedures are followed, that medication is administered as prescribed and that all care provided is properly documented and regularly audited, checked and reviewed.
7. To undertake quality visits to service user homes to assess their satisfaction and the quality of service provision. To carry out direct observations of staff practice and care delivery. To follow up any concerns, complaints or unmet needs and to recognise good practice. To identify ways in which the service user's quality of life, independence and community connections can be enhanced.

- 8. To carry out audits of key support documents records in the home and office and to undertake medication compliance checks.
- 9. To plan and carry out staff supervision and appraisals in accordance with agreed standards. To monitor and assess staff attendance, reliability, performance, values and competence of staff. To address any concerns proactively.
- 10. To take part in staff recruitment as required and facilitate their retention and personal development. To ensure that staff complete all necessary training and are updated regarding policies and agency expectations. To support staff welfare and promote their loyalty and job satisfaction.
- 11. To induct new staff and to coach all staff in providing effective, personalised care. To ensure that staff understand and follow care plans, medication requirements, health protocols and moving and handling guidelines.
- 12. To instruct and coach staff in undertaking delegated health support tasks, with support from health professionals. To promote and nurture best practice.
- 13. To organise and take part in service user care reviews and to ensure that the service user is empowered to express their views, needs and concerns. To ensure that care plans are developed and updated following the reviews.
- 14. To ensure there is an up to date risk assessment and support plan for each service user which is reviewed at least annually and whenever risks or needs change to ensure that all staff are aware of the changes and any new guidelines.
- 15. To ensure that service users are supported to exercise control over their own lives and consent to their own care and support arrangements. Where there are concerns regarding a service user's capacity to consent to care and support to seek guidance from the Registered Manager regarding any need for capacity and best interest assessments.
- 16. To promote excellent customer care to service users, their families and other agencies. To seek their feedback and to act on any concerns or suggestions.
- 17. To provide direct care and support as needed and to rota yourself on shift as required. This could involve the provision of personal care, support with daily living, administering medication, moving and handling, household tasks and general emotional support.

18. To ensure that people with mobility and manual handling needs have an up to date manual handling assessment and that staff follow any specific guidelines for safe manual handling or mobility support which may arise from these assessments.
19. To ensure that people with additional physical/sensory disabilities and communication needs receive a service which is tailored to their individual needs and communication requirements.
20. To communicate effectively with staff, the people we support, their families and stakeholders, and to promote the positive reputation and activities of Creative Support and Hall Lane services.
21. To report, document and manage accidents, incidents and emergencies, following Creative Support's reporting guidelines and requirements. To provide excellent internal and external customer care. To ensure that service users and their families, are aware of the Complaints Policy and are supported to make complaints and suggestions.
22. To ensure that vulnerable adults and children are safeguarded from harm. To ensure that all staff, volunteers, and students on placement comply with Creative Support and the Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures. To report immediately any concerns regarding vulnerable adults or children to the Registered Manager and the local authority.
23. To carry out all recording and administrative duties relating to the management and quality monitoring of the service, and to comply with all requests for reports and information from your line manager. To ensure that the service provided meets the service specification, Creative Support's quality expectations and CQC essential standards.
24. To implement and comply with Creative Support's Equal Opportunities Policies. To ensure that the care provided is sensitive to the cultural, spiritual and religious needs of service users and staff alike.
25. To take part in an out of hour's on-call rota and undertake all associated duties in a professional and diligent manner.
26. To deputise for the Registered service Manager as required.

Care and Support of Service Users:

27. To develop and sustain warm, trusting and respectful relationships with service users. To promote the self-esteem, happiness, and welfare of the people we support. To offer unconditional positive regard and provide respectful personal care in accordance with identified needs and preferences, ensuring that confidentiality, dignity and privacy is maintained at all times.

28. To provide direct care and support. This will involve the provision of personal care, health related tasks, support with daily living, administering medication, moving and handling, meal preparation and general emotional support.
29. To support people in maintaining the safety, security, cleanliness and comfort of their homes and to follow up any concerns.
30. To ensure that people receive all necessary advice and support to maintain their physical and mental health and general wellbeing and to meet their health care needs. To promote good nutrition and a healthy lifestyle, compliance with prescribed medication and health management guidelines. To support people to stay active, engaged with their communities and in leading a fulfilled active lifestyle.
31. To observe and monitor people's emotional and physical well-being and to inform the line manager, families and other agencies of any concerns or significant changes in their needs, welfare, behaviour and circumstances. To convey any health or other professional concerns to members of the multi-disciplinary team in a proactive manner.
32. To work closely with the families of the people we support and other professionals involved in their care to provide a coordinated service which meets their needs and preferences. To positively and respectfully communicate with families and other professionals at all times.
